

Radio Presenter Job Vacancy

102.3 KISS FM is looking to fill the position of a radio presenter. If you believe you have what it takes to convince people to tune-in to your voice everyday then the job could be yours! Radio presenting is all about personality, charisma, being well-informed, attention to detail, having a drive to succeed and an ability to reach out to your listeners.

The successful candidates will;

- Research, plan and develop on air content, ideas and concepts in line with the station strategy and values
- Deliver on air presentation/continuity
- Thoroughly understand and relate with the listener
- Execute outside broadcasting/road shows and attend functions on behalf of the station
- Receive briefs from clients/sales/supervisor and execute accordingly
- Script, record, package and produce station features
- Create and execute on air gaming elements
- Have a good understanding of social media

Skills and Personal attributes

- Fluent in spoken and written Kinyarwanda
- Good radio voice & personality
- Great ear for music
- Able to work odd hours including weekends and holidays
- Have an understanding of Media Law and Ethics
- At least 2 years' experience as a Presenter an advantage
- Must be innovative and creative

Interested persons should send their resume and a short audio demo to jobs@kissfm.rw. We review all applications but due to the high volume of correspondence we are unable to respond to all. Shortlisted candidates will be called for interview. Deadline for applications: 21/07/2023.